FOCUS AREAS OF KANCOR INGREDIENTS LIMITED

1. Supporting clean sourcing, with minimal carbon foot print. We shall do this by helping our farmers and vendors improve their practices in agriculture. The program will help farmers in maintaining the quality of soil, air & water thereby ensuring environmental sustainability & ecological balance. The effort will include in its scope, training, awareness building, subsidized supply of safe and clean packaging materials, at cost supplies of plant protection chemicals and nutrients.
2. Installation and supply of toilets in areas where access to clean toilets is difficult. Eg market yards, schools in villages where we operate, thereby once again improving the quality of life of the people who interact/depend on us.
3. Supporting the needs of school going children of their books, shoes, school kits and uniforms, in and around our operating areas, so we touch the lives of our workers, vendors, service providers and farmers. Building up a relationship with them so that there is a dialog and many points of connect, that demonstrates our interest in them, our value systems and thereby our ability to communicate with them in the most difficult of times on all possible subjects.

Kancor will also identify, evaluate and implement any other projects / proposal, which as per the assessment will directly benefit the larger community around its area of operation even though such project / proposal is not covered in the above scope. However, Schedule VII of the Companies Act 2013 will guide this decision.

All Projects will be implemented in association with the constituents or local administration authorities.

The proposal is to use 2% of our Profit Before Tax each year in these schemes, allocated in the ratio of 50,40,10% respectively.

The CSR committee will have the authority to realign the expenditure limits / percentage based on the need.
